ABOUT DANI

Dani Sage is a modern mystic, Human Design Chart reader, and the owner of the Good Vibes Hive, a boutique salon where self care meets spirituality. A firm believer that ritual & metaphysical tools should be easy and accessible for the masses, Dani spends her days demystifying the world of Woo Woo through Human Design readings, tarot readings, educational workshops and her signature Find Your Divine sessions.

You can also find her chatting crystals at her thoughtfully-curated boutique, which is specifically designed to make selecting the spiritual tools to live your best life simple, non-intimidating, and tons of fun!
